

*Because Easter coincides with the end of winter dormancy and the early signs of springtime, nature provides many metaphors for drawing our attention to the resurrection of Christ. The three stages of the butterfly—the caterpillar, the chrysalis, and the flight of the fully developed butterfly—serve as an ideal symbol, signifying Christ’s life, death, and resurrection, as well as the idea of freedom from the imprisonment of death, not only for Christ, but for all persons. Consequently, the butterfly has become one of the most well-known symbols of the resurrection in the history of Christian symbolism. In early Christian paintings Christ is sometimes depicted holding the butterfly of resurrection. That is why we have placed 10 paper butterflies around the sanctuary. See if you can find them!
