

RAINBOW MENNONITE CHURCH

January 6 2018

Welcome to our worship service. We strive to welcome everyone without regard to race, ethnic identity, gender, sexual orientation, age, and economic or other life circumstances. For information about our church or the Mennonite faith, literature is available in the east and west foyers outside the sanctuary.

We invite you to sign our friendship register when it is passed during the offering. Between the worship service and Sunday school, please join us for coffee and donuts downstairs in the fellowship hall. Visitors and newcomers, please look for the Rainbow Connections Table!

This morning's ushers Brad and Nancy Grittman. Greeters are John and Pat Bertsche. Please ask them if you need assistance with seating, would like to use a large-print hymnal, need a hearing assistance device or have questions about the location of the restrooms. The nursery is located on the second floor of the education wing and is available for children from birth to age 4. This morning's nursery workers are Amy Ortman, Barbara Baumgartner and Abigail Grittman. The closing trustee is Eric Jantzen.

This Morning at Rainbow...

This morning we welcome guest speaker Joshua Smith, member of Rainbow Mennonite since 2012. In 2015, he and his wife Alyssa moved to Colorado, where they serve as caretakers at First Mennonite Church of Denver. He is currently a Ph.D. student at the University of Denver and is about to begin writing his dissertation on the Gospel of Luke. He is a member of House for All Sinners and Saints in Denver, where he occasionally preaches.

Eba Lemessa, one of our Mennonite Voluntary Service* workers, is ending his term to go back to school. He had planned to take online classes and finish here in February, but his school has made it mandatory to attend classes in person. Eba has been a wonderful addition to KC MVS, the Rainbow community, and his placement at Connecting For Good. This morning is his final service with us at Rainbow.

Remembering in Prayer...

Please pray for Bill Goodman who has been in the hospital since Christmas Day.

Please continue to keep Dave, Hannah, and Larissa Schrag in your prayers. If you are interested in taking a meal to them, please sign up at the link below or contact Dave directly. In addition, Dave would appreciate any simple recipes that you have to share.
