Winter Education Classes

The Book of Forgiving*.....Library

A discussion of The Book of Forgiving: The Fourfold Path for Healing Ourselves and Our World is written by Desmond Tutu and Mpho Tutu, offering a manual on the art of forgiveness—helping us to realize that we are all capable of healing and transformation.

Why I Am an Atheist Who Believes in God*..... Room 110

This class will discuss Why I am an Atheist Who Believes in God: How to Give Love, Create Beauty, and Find Peace by Frank Schaeffer. Schaeffer once stood near the top of conservative Christian evangelicalism but is now one of its strongest critics. He is an “atheist” who still talks to Jesus—in spite of everything.

Worship Response Group*.....Pastor’s Office

This will be an opportunity to discuss the purpose and experience of worship at Rainbow. We will consider questions such as “What helped us worship today? What interfered with our worship? What inspiration, challenge, question will you take with you this week?”

The Wired Word*.....Sunflower Room

This week's discussion will use the story about a man in Oklahoma who goes on trial in federal court this month for allegedly helping people to lie. Douglas Williams, owner of the website Polygraph.com, is charged with witness tampering, obstruction and mail fraud which stem from his teaching people how pass polygraph tests. We will use this story to discuss "Truth and honesty." Join us to share your thoughts on this topic. You're welcome whether you have studied the lesson or not.
