

RAINBOW MENNONITE CHURCH

February 12, 2017

Good Morning! Welcome to our service of worship and celebration. We invite you to sign our register and to worship with us whenever you can. We welcome everyone without regard to race, ethnic identity, gender, sexual orientation, age, and economic or other life circumstances. Information about our church and about the Mennonite faith is available on the brochure racks near the side entrances to the sanctuary.

Today's ushers are David Stewart and Jonathan Bollinger. Our greeters are John and Pat Bertsche. Please ask any of them if you need assistance with seating, would like to use a large-print hymnal, need a hearing assistance device or have questions about the location of the restrooms. The nursery is located on the second floor of the education wing. Our nursery workers today are Jeff Janzen, Tanya Ortman, and Abigail Gritman.

Closing Trustee: Robert Kaufman

The rose in the front of the sanctuary is in honor of Dawn Araujo-Hawkins and Nick Hawkins for the birth of their son Calvin Peter Parham Hawkins on February 6.

We thank Sarah Klaassen, pastor of Rock Bridge Church Church in Columbia, MO, for loaning us the Mennonite Peace and Service banner at the front of the Sanctuary. It was designed by Bob Regier.

Sexual violence in the church is an uncomfortable and challenging subject for conversation, but one that's important to have as we explore our Mennonite identity this month. Today, Dr. Stephanie Krehbiel, one of the forces behind the Our Stories Untold blog and the SNAPmenno accountability movement, will help lead a Sunday school discussion. You're also invited to a lunch and learn conversation with Stephanie following Sunday school in the Fellowship Hall. Pizza will be provided for a suggested $10 donation.

February is photo refresh month! The Welcome Committee would like to update the photo directory in the Fellowship Hall. Phil Rhoads and Ky Stoltzfus will be taking photos of individuals and families during the month of February. So please have your photo taken during the coffee hour so it can be updated on the wall.

Last call for the church directory! Paper copies are available to edit in the Fellowship Hall.

Our local Mennonite camp, Camp Mennoscah, is now accepting registrations for summer camps. If you would like to request a camp scholarship or if you know someone in need of a scholarship, please contact Deacon Chair Amy Kliever (akliever.adk@gmail.com) or Pastor Ruth (ruthh@rainbowmennonite.org).

As mentioned in at the January Congregational meeting, the Trustees are considering increasing the number of handicapped parking spaces in the North parking lot. The drop-off site on Mill Street will remain for those needing to let passenger's off and enter via the ramp. Please be mindful of parking within the allotted space (lines) provided, particularly where van accessible spots are designated to accommodate vans with ramps.

Registration is now open for Mennonite Church USA convention in Orlando, Florida July 4-8. If you are interested in being a delegate, please contact Pastor Ruth.

STRING BAND MUSIC – JUST FOR THE FUN OF IT. The sounds of fiddle, banjo, guitar, mandolin, hammered dulcimer and bass will once again be heard at Rainbow. On February 28 from 7:00-9:00 p.m. the Quasi Brothers will host a time for tunes and songs. All are welcome. Bring your friends and neighbors. Questions? Contact Steve Goeke.

Rainbow's got talent! Save the date and sign-up for the Variety Show Extravaganza happening on Sunday, March 5th from 6-8pm. Youth families will be providing a dessert buffet and proceeds raised will go to help fund the sr high youth attending MCUSA convention and the jr high youth who attended Snow Camp at RMMC last month. Anyone (and all ages!) who has a talent they would like to share can sign-up with Renee at renee@rainbowmennonite.org. You will not want to miss this night of laughter, sugar, and jr high youth singing John Denver!

If you have questions please contact personnel committee chair Nancy Gritman.

For close to 40 years, Rainbow Mennonite has worked in tandem with a 501(c)(3) organization called Sharing Community in Rosedale, Inc. Adult Education Classes

Religion for Atheists* .....Sunflower Room

This class will be a discussion of the book Religion for Atheists: A Non-believer's Guide to the Uses of Religion by Alain de Botton. Botton suggests that rather than mocking religion, agnostics and atheists should instead steal from it—because the world’s religions are packed with good ideas on how we might live and arrange our societies. Blending deep respect with total impiety, de Botton (a non- believer himself) proposes that we look to religion for insights into how to, among other concerns, build a sense of community, make our relationships last, overcome feelings of envy and inadequacy, inspire travel and reconnect with the natural world.

The Fire This Time, Part Two* .....Library

We continue to learn, analyze, challenge, and dissect racial identities, power, misuse of power and their interplay. But we also act. Now is the time. We must work within our church walls and outside of them. Please join us if you are ready to help chart a path forward.

To be or not to be an Anabaptist Mennonite.....Wesley Room

This class, facilitated by Pastor Ruth and friends, will compliment the January-February worship series where we will learn more about the gifts and challenges of belonging to a Mennonite denomination and global Anabaptist movement. If you've ever wanted a chance to learn more about the historical and contemporary realities Mennonites face, join us!
