We dream of a feast where there's no - one out - side, turned a -
We dream of a moun - tain where no harm is done, where the

CHILD DEDICATION

If you did not have time to submit a written announcement, or if something new needs highlighting, please hand your written announcement to the worship leader or pastor before the worship service.

**Today's scriptural reflection was written by Randall Tremble of Shepherdstown Presbyterian Church in West Virginia. It is based on Luke 19:28-42.

Anthem text:

Can you hear the prayer of the children
On bended knee, in the shadow of an unknown room?
Empty eyes, with no more tears to cry,
Turning heavenward, toward the light.

Crying, "Jesus, help me
To see the morning light of one more day;
But if I should die before I wake,
I pray my soul to take."

Can you feel the heart of the children
Aching for home, for something of their very own?
Reaching hands, with nothing to hold on to
But hope for a better day, a better day.

Crying, "Jesus, help me
To feel the love again in my own land;
But if unknown roads lead away from home,
Give me loving arms, away from harm."

Can you hear the voice of the children
Softly pleading for silence in a shattered world?
Angry guns preach a gospel full of hate,
Blood of the innocent on their hands.

Crying, "Jesus, help me
To feel the sun again upon my face;
For when darkness clears I know you're near,
Bringing peace again."

Dali cujete sve dječje molitve?
Can you hear the prayer of the children?
